Some Decided Reductions!

Half Prices on Trimmed Hats still prevail. A great many have been sold, but plenty are yet here to choose from. Trimmed hats for as little as $1.25 or as much as $6, and every one for merely twice as much.

Walking Hats, Golf Hats, Sailors all sorts of felt hats. Not enough of any one kind to specify, but too many, all told, to carry over. Marked reductions have been made, in some instances as much as 50 per cent.

Capes and Jackets, too. Could we have anticipated this mild and spring like winter we could have bought Capes and Jackets accordingly. Weather's intentions, however, are secrets well kept, so we've goods on hand. Possibly you'll have need yet for heavy wraps. Any way, present reduced prices will pay you to buy for next winter's needs. The reduction will average 25 per cent, some cases more, and on new, stylish Jackets and Capes.

Calicoes. Staple Garner Prints in light colors. Unusual, in the face of an advancing market, to reduce the price on such a staple commodity, but we've a number of thousand yards, and for a while the price will be 20 yards for a dollar.

Woolen Hose for women and children. The instability of the weather is responsible for this also. Women's Cashmere hose, regularly 65 cents a pair, are now 50 cents a pair. Children's woolen hose, rubbed, all sizes, regularly 35 cents a pair, now 25 cents.

The goods will be displayed and suitably placarded on special table in the Dry Goods Department.

Silver Plated Cutlery. Knives, forks, spoons and the like. Standard articles of a standard quality and usually at a standard price. Too many in stock but no matter what the reason. It's enough to know that from the prices marked on the goods you deduct 25 per cent. That's your saving if you buy now. They are quadruple plated, too. Hardware counter.

NEW EMBROIDERIES.

The advance guard of the spring merchandise. About one thousand yards to start with. New patterns, good material, with carefully finished edges. Three lots at as many prices—10 cents, 12½ cents and 20 cents a yard.

OUTING FLANNELS.

A new lot just in, different in color of facts and patterns from any preceding lot. The goods are soft and nappy and better adapted than ever to the hundred and one uses its put to. Despite the advance in cost the quality and price remain the same—12½ cents a yard.

MEN'S NECKWEAR.

A cleaning up of stock preparatory to the new things spring will have to show. A pattern, color or shape that didn't "take" as we thought it would. To hurry these laggards out we've reduced the prices. The usual 75-cent quality in tecks and four-in-hands, 50 cents.

WOMEN'S NECKWEAR.

A few dozen of the very newest things, but a week from New York. Mostly wide Silk Ties, with fancy embroidered ends. Rich looking ties, and best of all, NEW. $1.50 to $2.50.
